

WORSHIP

Water U Doing?

By: Tripp Martin

June 2nd

Seventh Sunday of Easter
Acts 16:16-34

I saw a question on a t-shirt years ago, which read, “Water U Doing?” It was the type of question that captures your attention. It makes you wonder what the difference is between “What are you doing?” and “Water U Doing?” It is a question asked by Watering Malawi.

June 9th

Pentecost
Acts 2:1-21
Genesis 11:1-9

Auburn FBC has supported Watering Malawi for years, which is a ministry started by Colleen Burroughs, who is also a co-founder of Passport. Colleen grew up in Malawi as a child of missionaries. When Malawi started to suffer from drought, and there was an acute need for clean water projects, Watering Malawi was started. It is why the question asks, “Water U Doing?”

Lay Worship Leader for June:
Amelia White

Watering Malawi is providing wells, which are given to a “Mother’s Club,” a group of fifteen women, who are owners of the well. It is creating simple irrigation systems for gardens, so Malawians can sustain themselves through cyclical drought. It is providing education, building fish farms, and installing bathrooms for schools.

Camp War Eagle (CWE) is the freshman orientation program of Auburn University. Incoming freshmen attend one session during the summer to register for classes and learn about the many opportunities Auburn has to offer. At each session there is a Campus Ministries table with information about churches and ministries in Auburn and Opelika. Campus ministers and volunteers are available to answer questions and help new students connect with religious life in this area. YOUTH

Youth SOS

Sunday nights during the summer

Summer is here! Our youth Sunday night gatherings look a little different in the summer. We call them Sunday Nights of Summer or SOS. Families sign up to host a night. They may host the group in their home, at a park, or another venue around town. We eat together, play games, and build a deeper sense of community within our group. SOS is a great time for fellowship and making memories. We're looking forward to a fantastic summer in the youth ministry!
